

	Healthcare Professionals Challenges		BlueCloud® Solutions
1	Disorganized CVs, training records and certifications on computer, laptop or file folder	Compliance	Organized personal account to track and manage professional records
2	Continuous expiration of required licensure and training certificates	Competency	Reminder alerts emailed prior to record expiration and delivered to Organizations
3	Career changes or transfers, records remain with organization	Ownership	Own account travels with you and accessible on-line 24/7
4	Stand-alone software programs cause dept communications problems	Technology	Centralized system to share and exchange professional records
5	Delays on credentialing process waiting for missing records & updates	Credentialing	Connect and share records directly with organizations
6	Provider directories out of date and compliance with record delays	Marketing	Record updates delivered immediately to Provider Directory
7	New employee hiring delays waiting on professional records	HR	Timely processing with on-line, up-to-date professional records and training documents
8	Endless exchange of emails and faxes regarding required professional records	Time-Saver	Upload directly into your own personal account
9	Expensive pricing for required training and certifications	Courses	Receive discounts on training and certifications
10	Cost of attending required conferences and medical/office equipment	Savings Club	Discounts for conferences and medical/office supplies, equipment and more.